

A special edition of... BUCKET FILL-OSOPHY 101

Children...

Children are truly gifts.

They humble us with their honesty.

They delight us with their innocence.

They amaze us with their unquestioning trust and love.

Their smiles light our days.

And, as with any precious gift, they must be treasured and protected from physical harm and mental and emotional anguish.

Their ability to love others and themselves must be nurtured.

Over the past year, we have seen bucket filling reach children and help them understand how kindness to others leads to happiness for themselves.

Your support of our program means so much to us.

Please accept this special edition of Bucket Fill-osophy as a sincere expression of our appreciation.
