

BUCKET LESSONS

Sharing Bucketfilling Ideas

Lesson #12, June 2009

Peggy and Brooke Johncox are both valuable members of our Bucket Fillers team.

When they were asked to judge 18 elementary classroom doors in Detroit's Cesar-Chavez Academy's door-decorating contest, Peggy's husband, Gary, suggested that every class receive a winning certificate. Follow the instructions here and hold a contest in your school.

We'd love to share your bucketfilling idea or ideas with our readers.

Be sure to include:

1. Your name, city and state
2. Name of your school
3. Grade and subject you teach
4. Photo(s) (optional) that illustrate your lesson(s)

Use the space below to evaluate the lesson and/or summarize your preparations for it

A Win-Win Winner

1. Announce plans to hold a school-wide classroom door-decorating contest with a bucketfilling theme.
2. Prepare a blank winning certificate and print the number needed.*
3. Appoint judges to select the "Most Colorful," "Most Creative," "Most Happy" door etc.
4. An optional "special treat" may also be awarded.

* Gary googled "awards," found an appropriate template and printed copy for every classroom
