

BUCKET LESSONS

Sharing Bucketfilling Ideas

Lesson #9, May 2009

This lesson comes from the blog of Miss Amanda, who made bucket necklaces for her preschool class.

This is a great idea for young children.

We'd love to share your bucketfilling idea or ideas with our readers.

Email us—

info@bucketfillers101.com

Be sure to include:

1. Your name, city and state
2. Name of your school
3. Grade and subject you teach
4. Photo(s) (optional) that illustrate your lesson(s)

Bucket Necklaces

1. Create small paper buckets, attach them to a string for your children to wear around their necks.
2. Label the back: "When I make someone feel good, I fill their bucket with happiness. When I fill someone else's bucket, I fill my own bucket too!"
3. Explain that whenever they fill a bucket with kindness, respect, or consideration they will receive a sticker to put in their bucket necklace.
4. Have them leave their bucket at school for the week.
5. At the end of the week, have them take their necklaces home to show their parents and describe how they filled buckets that week.

Use the space below to evaluate the lesson and/or summarize your preparations for it

NOTES AND REMINDERS