

BUCKET LESSONS

Sharing Bucketfilling Ideas

Lesson #10, May 2009

This very simple lesson comes from Lee Nearpass, of Kearny, New Jersey, who wrote to tell us about a bucket lesson she gave in one of her church's "Girls Alive!" nights.

"We had so much fun" Lee said.

We'd love to share your bucketfilling idea or ideas with our readers.

Be sure to include:

1. Your name, city and state
2. Name of your school
3. Grade and subject you teach
4. Photo(s) (optional) that illustrate your lesson(s)

Tiny buckets deliver message

1. Find or order enough small buckets for each student.
2. Use pink circle stickers for the buckets' rosy cheeks and draw two ovals with a water repellent marker for eyes and a big happy smile.
3. Explain that we all have invisible buckets and how bucket filling is part of living.
4. Explain bucket dipping.
5. Encourage questions and discussion.
