It's Our 10th Birthday! . . .

. . . And we are inviting you to join us as we celebrate this milestone!

June is officially Bucketfilling Month!

Our "party" will involve filling buckets around the world with kindness the entire month of June 2016. We've said many times over the years, "when you fill someone's bucket, you fill your own bucket, too!" With that in mind, here's what we'd love to have you do:

CHOOSE one day in June 2016 and put it on your calendar as "My Bucketfilling Day." When that day arrives express kindness to as many people as possible. Keep a record throughout the day of what you did and what you enjoyed about the experience. Take pictures. What were the reactions to your bucket filling? How did you feel when the day was done? Some of your bucket filling may be small, but memorable, however don't hesitate if you think of something on a grander scale.

HOW you go about filling these celebratory "Birthday Buckets" is your choice. You may want to gather a group to join you as you spread kindness or you may think of some buckets that you'd rather fill alone. Fill your day of bucket filling with a variety of creative ideas; do something that you know will make someone happy. Make the day one to remember as you spend time, or money, or both, to fill buckets.

SHARE THE FUN: There are several ways to share your bucketfilling experiences with us: email them to info@bucketfillers101.com or share them on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram. Use #MyBucketfillingDay on social media. Be sure to include your name or your group's name with your bucketfilling stories and pictures.*

THERE WILL BE PRIZES: We will choose ten winners and one Grand Prize Winner from all the responses we receive by July 1, 2016. The ten winners will each receive a prize pack of 10 signed bucketfilling books/CDs, along with some other great bucketfilling products. The Grand Prize Winner will receive the same prize pack, along with $1,000 to be donated to the nonprofit of their choice.*

Think of all the buckets that will be filled in June! Together we can spread kindness and fill buckets to all corners of the world and there is no better birthday present than that!

Thank you for celebrating this milestone with us!
