

Bucket Fillosophy® 101

Sharing Bucketfilling Ideas
Bucket Lesson #45

Week of November 26, 2017
Volume 11, Issue 21

The Gift of Bucket Filling

Our book, Bucket Filling from A to Z, talks about giving gifts . . .

*Give a big bright smile or a little of your time.
These are very welcome gifts that won't cost you a dime.*

Did you know that our time is one of the greatest gifts we can give to others? This bucket lesson focuses on the gift of time that you can give to someone this upcoming holiday season. Here's what you'll need:

- 1) Our Bucketfilling Coupon Book sheet
- 2) A pair of scissors
- 3) A single hole punch (optional)
- 4) A 12-inch piece of ribbon (optional)

To make your coupon book:

- 1) Print the Bucketfilling Coupon Book sheet, preferably on thick paper or cardstock.
- 2) Cut out the coupon book cover page and five coupons. (You can always print two sheets if you want to have more coupons in your book.)
- 3) Punch holes in the cover and each of the coupon book pages. Thread your ribbon through the holes and tie a nice bow. (Note: This step is optional. You can always staple your book together.)
- 4) Fill out each of the coupons with a single, bucketfilling act you can do for someone. Students might want to brainstorm bucketfilling ideas together (i.e. - shoveling snow, babysitting, cleaning their room, etc.).
- 5) Fill out the To: and From: spaces on the front of your coupon book and give it as a gift to someone this holiday season.

The recipient of your Bucketfilling Coupon Book is sure to love not only the book, but also the time you spend filling their bucket. It will surely fill your bucket, too!

For even more ideas, be sure to check out our past Bucket Lessons on our website!
